

Dear FCC,

RM-10867 is a very good petition except for code testing. Morse code is a thing of the past. Other countries have decided there is no need for it. It should be up to the individual person if he or she wants to use code, not a testing requirement. I must support RM-10870 as I feel it is better for the future of amateur radio.

Paul Ward